Muted tones for a fresh, bright outlook.

Sage formed the basis for this shoot's colour palette. Firstly, it is hugely popular this season, but secondly (and perhaps coincidentally) it represents the process of "saging" negative energy out of your life—something that has also grown in popularity since March.

Dress Stylist's own
Shoes : Superga €89
Bag ASOS €15

Flowers indoors helped us to stay connected with nature during a time when outdoor pursuits were limited.

Faux flowers have become an essential interiors accessory. Again, perhaps to bring the outdoors closer.

look three

Sports bra Stylist's own
Shorts Oysho €35.99
Blazer Zara €30
Trainers Veja €115

Mixing comfy casuals, such as a sports bra and cycling shorts, with a chic blazer, represents the WFH wardrobe struggle we have all faced.
